From the Chairperson

It is a wonderful privilege to present to all our well-wishers the Annual Report for the year 2024–2025, showcasing yet another gloriously successful chapter in the journey of Bal Sahyog.

On behalf of the entire Bal Sahyog family, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to our esteemed CSR partners, donors, and well-wishers for their unwavering support and generosity. Your continued commitment has been instrumental in enabling us to provide shelter, education, and holistic care to countless underprivileged children throughout the year.

At Bal Sahyog, we are dedicated not only to meeting the basic and fundamental needs of the children in our care, but also to nurturing their dreams and guiding them towards a brighter future. With a vision of building responsible and empowered citizens, our team works tirelessly to raise awareness, instill values, and cultivate skills that will help these young lives grow into proud contributors to our nation.

Your belief in our mission fuels our passion and inspires us to keep striving for a more compassionate and equitable world. Together, we have made a tangible difference—and together, we will continue this journey of hope, transformation, and empowerment.

With warm regards and best wishes to each one of you and to our extended Bal Sahyog family.

Chairperson, Bal Sahyog

FROM THE DESK OF THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

It gives me great joy to present this Annual Report, which reflects not only the milestones achieved during the year but also the unwavering commitment of our team, partners, and supporters. Each initiative, small or large, has been guided by our shared vision of creating opportunities, nurturing potential, and building hope for those we serve.

This year brought both challenges and moments of encouragement. What has stood out consistently is the resilience of our children, the dedication of our staff, and the generosity of our well-wishers. Together, we have been able to move closer to our mission, reaching more lives and strengthening our programs in education, care, and empowerment.

As you read through this report, I invite you to see the impact your support has made possible. The stories and numbers captured here are not just statistics, but lives transformed. On behalf of our organization, I extend my heartfelt gratitude to all who have walked with us on this journey.

With continued faith and collective effort, I am confident that the coming year will open even greater possibilities for service and growth.

Warm regards,

I also highly appreciate Mr. Sandeep for his efforts in creating this annual report.

WHO WE ARE

Bal Sahyog was founded as a pious endeavor by the late former Prime Minister of India, Smt. Indira Gandhi in 1954 for Care and Protection of the helpless, orphan, abandoned, runaways and vulnerable children and the children rescued from child labour. Bal Sahyog provides round-the-clock services of shelter, nutrition, medical care, clothing, education, vocational training, recreational and overall amenities to more than 125 children within its Children's Home. The Hon'ble Prime Minister of India is the Patron of Bal Sahyog.

In its endeavor to the holistic development of children in need and collective action, Bal Sahyog has been networking and collaborating with different Child Care Institutions, Government Institutions, Law Enforcement Agencies, Donor Agencies, Non-Government Organizations, Civil Society Organizations, Opinion Makers, and individuals for the same. It is located in the area of 1.67 acres in Connaught Place, New Delhi. It has also established a Bal Sahyog Middle School within its campus that is aided by Govt. of NCT of Delhi.

The Organization has a well-defined financial policy, Child Protection Policy, HR Policy, and its accounts are audited by a reputed audit firm. Bal Sahyog works only in the NCT of Delhi.

INFRASTRUCTURE

OVERVIEW

CHILDREN HOME

Bal Sahyog Children Home is licensed for containing up to 125 children for their care and protection, including children from Open Shelter.

OPEN SHELTER

Bal Sahyog is licensed to provide an open shelter facility to 25 children within the premises of Bal Sahyog.

MIDDLE SCHOOL

Bal Sahyog runs an aided govt. School registered under Education Department, Govt. of NCT. of Delhi

VOCATIONAL TRAINING CENTRE

We have four contact centers for vocational training in computers supported by 'Tech Mahindra Foundation'.

Bal Sahyog Children Home

A place where children can grow with love, care, and protection of House Parents, they are nurtured with healthy and nutritious food, their medical needs are attended, they learn and play with friends, and are motivated to lead a responsible, independent, and happy life in future...

The children are always under the care of a team that includes the Superintendent, four House Parents, one Non-Formal Educator/Remedial Educator, one staff nurse, one Social Welfare Officer, one Child Welfare Officer, two Counsellors, five Cooking Staff, four Cleaning Staff, and seven Security Guards.

All activities are monitored very minutely and decisions are always made for the upliftment and betterment of children. Also, it is taken care of that the demand of the children's committee is fulfilled if worthwhile and possible.

There were a total of 136 boys who lived in the Children Home this year. While some of them were restored to their families, a few were transferred to various other shelter homes based on their needs. Nevertheless, the monthly occupancy in the children's home ranged from a minimum of 91 boys to a maximum of 101 boys at a time.

Bal Sahyog Open Shelter

As per the Department of Women & Child Development, Government of India, the main immediate objective of the Open Shelter remains to look after runaway children, missing children, trafficked children, children trapped in child labour, children in a street situation, child beggars, child substance abusers, children affected by any natural disaster, children living in unauthorised areas/slums, and other vulnerable groups of children for the short term, based on the need assessment of the district.

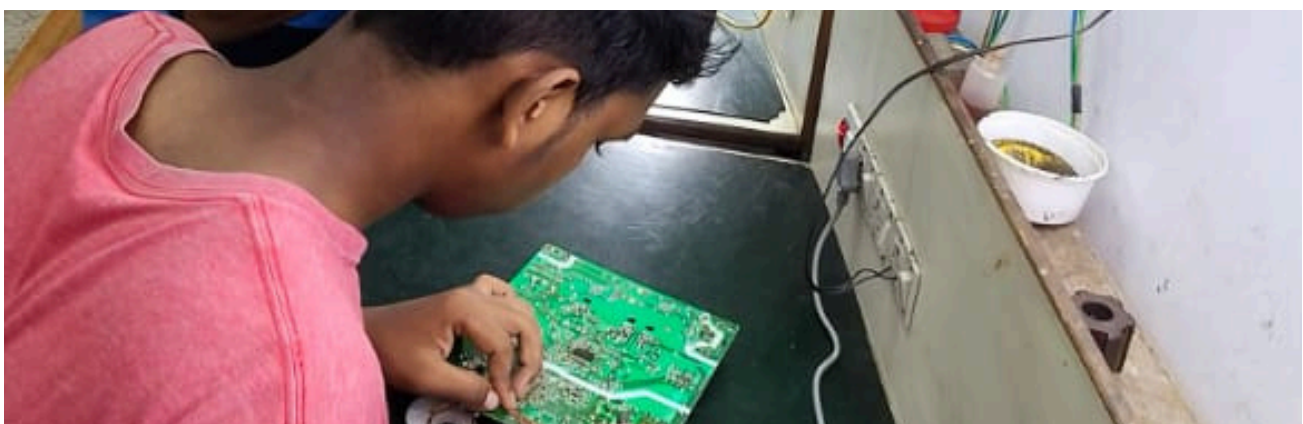

In the future, these children are aimed to be weaned away from street life and be enabled to lead a dignified and productive life. Care, support, rehabilitation, and holistic development being the cornerstones of all activities, all children in the open shelter are provided with a conducive and positive environment that instills them with hope for a better life. This year there were 112 new children who joined the Open Shelter at different times for their short stays, with a maximum of 24 staying in Bal Sahyog at a time.

Our Extension Centre - MSME

MSME-DI (Development Institute), Extension Centre, Bal Sahyog was established in the year 1956 to provide technical training for skill development in different trades to the educated, unemployed youth and school dropout children of the Society.

Every year children from Bal Sahyog attend vocational courses like cutting and tailoring, Electronics and electricals and carpentry at MSME. The aim of this training at MSME is to generate self-employment and to provide skilled personnel to the industrial sector.

Day to Day Activities

Morning Assembly

Morning assembly helps children to set the tone for the rest of the day and gives them a right start. Children begin their day by seeking the blessings of the almighty through the Morning Prayer. We have observed that boys exhibit their best behaviour and attitude when they participate in the assembly and prayer. It contributes to their composure and mental & spiritual well-being too, and they are more receptive and disciplined thereafter.

House Meeting

At Bal Sahyog, House meeting is organized every week on Saturday so that children could express their emotions and discuss problems they are facing. The discussion is held in presence of all the staff members directly related with the care & protection and development activities of the children. The solution to the problems are strictly committed and hence resolved. In addition to resolution to the problems, fresh concepts are also presented to up-bring the children in best possible ways.

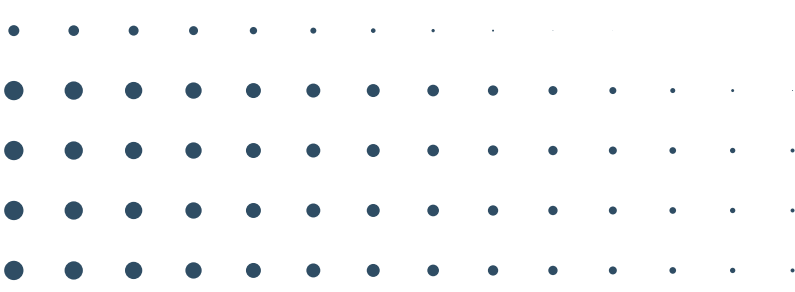

To ensure that each child has the opportunity to discuss matters important to them at their own level, individual house meetings are also held between the children and the house parent.

YOGA CLASSES

Yoga is a holistic way of uplifting the overall health of individuals, and the importance of yoga for children is highly emphasised by health practitioners and educationists alike.

At Bal Sahyog, yoga has become a vital part of the children's daily routine. The children are guided through each posture with precise techniques to ensure they reap the full benefits of the practice. These sessions not only focus on the physical aspects of yoga but also encourage mental clarity and emotional stability. The children enjoy these sessions immensely, participating with great enthusiasm. It has become a fun yet enriching part of their day, promoting a sense of community and well-being, while instilling a lifelong appreciation for the balance that yoga brings to their lives.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A birthday celebration is one of the most meaningful ways to bring happiness and joy into a child's life. It offers them a sense of importance, love, and belonging, allowing them to feel truly special on their day. At Bal Sahyog, this sentiment is honored through a monthly tradition—on the 3rd of every month, birthdays of all children born in that month are celebrated together. This not only ensures that every child gets their moment of joy, but also creates a shared experience that strengthens bonds and builds lasting memories among the children.

From April 2024 to March 2025, Bal Sahyog celebrated a total of 12 birthdays as part of this tradition. Each celebration included a cake-cutting ceremony, where the birthday children were cheered on by their peers, followed by the distribution of thoughtful gifts. These moments, though simple, play a powerful role in shaping the emotional well-being of the children, reinforcing that they are cherished and cared for within their community.

Special Meals

In addition to special meals that is sponsored on festivals, donors also make their special day even more memorable by sponsoring special meals to the children of Bal Sahyog. They offer this to help our children commemorate their big days and occasions. Special occasions also contains special day for children say their birthdays or alumni meet etc.

Festivals require special delicacies, and our boys adore eating the mouthwatering meals made on these significant days. This is made possible by our great supporters and contributors, who contribute to us by sponsoring meals with cash or in-kind gifts. To do this, they prepare some treats in the kitchen or have the sponsors' families send them, which the children enjoy. The menu for this special lunch is unique and offers a variety of delectable dishes, including halwa, kheer, sewinyan, paneer dishes, rayata, and dal makhni, among others. There were 60 special meals donated throughout the past six months, including breakfast, lunch, and dinner.

LAXMAN

Laxman's journey began in 2015 when he arrived at Bal Sahyog, a place that would soon become his second home. Having passed his school exams with determination, he had no scholarship to rely on, but the support from the organization was invaluable. Though he didn't receive any financial aid, the mentoring and encouragement from the team at Bal Sahyog helped him gain confidence and perseverance. By 2018, Laxman celebrated his 18th birthday, marking a pivotal moment in his life—a step towards adulthood, filled with both challenges and opportunities.

After finishing his school education, Laxman pursued higher studies and graduated with a Master's degree in Political Science. His academic journey wasn't always easy, but his passion for understanding politics and society kept him focused. His hard work paid off when he secured a job at Concentrix, working in the Comcast process. Though he didn't have any formal job training, Laxman quickly adapted, applying his skills to his new role, and within months, he became a reliable asset to the team. Through this employment, he not only achieved a sustainable livelihood but also built a solid foundation for his future aspirations.

Looking back, Laxman couldn't help but feel grateful for the experiences that shaped his path—from his early days at Bal Sahyog to his academic triumphs and now, his job at Concentrix. He knew that his journey was far from over, but with his strong will and determination, Laxman was ready to face whatever came next, confident in the progress he had already made.

MANOJ

Manoj's journey to success began in 2006 when he arrived at Bal Sahyog, an organization dedicated to supporting and nurturing children from difficult circumstances. At the time, Manoj was a young boy with little hope, but the support he received at Bal Sahyog proved to be life-changing. The nurturing environment provided him with access to education, counseling, and mentorship, helping him build a foundation for a brighter future. The organization not only helped him overcome personal challenges but also instilled in him the value of hard work and perseverance.

In 2016, when Manoj turned 18, he faced the challenges of transitioning from adolescence to adulthood. However, his determination to succeed and the guidance from Bal Sahyog helped him stay focused. He pursued higher education and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts degree in 2021. His academic journey was not without its struggles, but his resilience and the skills he gained through the support of his mentors enabled him to push through the obstacles and complete his degree successfully.

Today, Manoj is thriving in his professional life as a Desktop Support Engineer at Tata Power. With a steady income, he has not only achieved financial independence but is also building a stable and fulfilling career. His story is one of determination, growth, and the transformative power of education and support. Manoj's success serves as a testament to his hard work and the pivotal role that organizations like Bal Sahyog can play in shaping the futures of young individuals.

AMIRUL

Amirul arrived at Bal Sahyog in November 2016 as a young child full of potential but limited resources. During his years at Bal Sahyog, Amirul showed consistent dedication to his studies and maintained a strong academic record. His efforts were recognized through a monthly scholarship awarded to students scoring above 75% in the year 2011, which served both as motivation and support for his educational journey.

On June 10, 2021, Amirul turned 18 and was successfully restored to his family after becoming an adult. By then, he had already built a strong foundation for his future. He went on to pursue his graduation in Commerce (B.Com) from the School of Open Learning (SOL), Delhi University, where he continued to demonstrate his commitment to learning and self-improvement.

Today, Amirul is employed at Peoplestrong Pvt. Ltd. as a Payroll Specialist, earning a stable income. His journey from a young boy at Bal Sahyog to a responsible, self-reliant young professional is a powerful example of resilience, hard work, and the transformative impact of timely support and care. Amirul's success story continues to inspire many others following a similar path.

SONU JHA

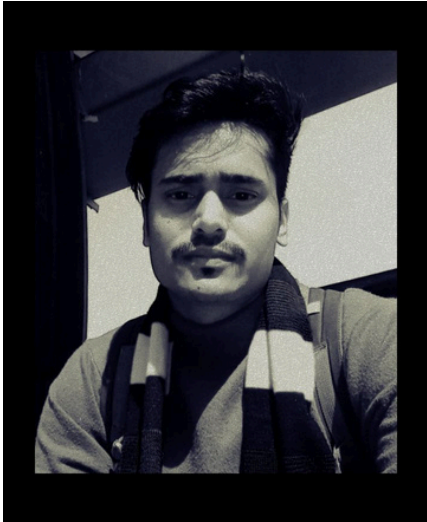

In 2014, Sonu joined Bal Sahyog, an NGO dedicated to the welfare of children in need. At just 16, he found a place where he could escape the pressures of his surroundings, discover new skills, and build friendships that would last a lifetime. Bal Sahyog gave him not only shelter but also an education and a chance to dream beyond the limits of his circumstances. Over the years, Sonu flourished in this supportive environment, and by 2019, he had gained enough confidence and independence to step out into the world on his own.

After being restored to his family by Bal Sahyog in 2019, Sonu took his education seriously and enrolled at Dr. Bheem Rao Ambedkar College, Delhi University. Juggling academics and part-time jobs, he completed his B.Com degree with determination and a deep sense of gratitude for the opportunities that had come his way. With each exam passed, Sonu felt more empowered to take charge of his future. His hard work paid off when he secured a job as an accountant at Stabor India Pvt. Ltd., a company known for its professional growth opportunities.

Now, working as an accountant, Sonu looks back at his journey with a sense of pride. The struggles of his early life have only fueled his ambition to succeed. His role at Stabor India not only offers him financial stability but also the satisfaction of knowing that with determination and the right support, one can overcome any obstacle. He continues to stay connected with Bal Sahyog, actively supporting its mission and inspiring others with his story of resilience and hope.

RAJA

Raja arrived at Bal Sahyog in 2010, a young boy with a curious mind and an eagerness to learn. His journey through the institution was a transformative one, as he moved from one grade to the next, overcoming personal challenges and expanding his horizons. By 2017, he turned 18, marking a significant milestone in his life. That year also brought a sense of closure and renewal as his status was restored, symbolizing the beginning of his new adult life.

Having completed his schooling with determination, Raja pursued a higher education in Hospitality Management, a field that had always piqued his interest. He graduated from a well-known college in 2017, with a deep understanding of the hospitality industry. With his degree in hand, he soon secured a job as a Café Manager at Align Series by Mr. Glass, a prestigious brand in the food and beverage sector. His responsibilities include overseeing the operations, ensuring excellent customer service, and managing staff, skills he quickly mastered with his inherent leadership abilities.

Now, at 25, Raja is earning a steady income. He reflects on how far he's come from his early days at Bal Sahyog. His life is no longer just about survival; it's about building a future. With dreams of expanding his career and possibly opening his own café one day, Raja holds on to the values of hard work and perseverance. Along with his success, he carries a passport-sized photograph –an emblem of his achievements, documenting the face of someone who once arrived with little and now thrives with much.

SHEKHAR

Shekhar's journey began long before he arrived at Bal Sahyog in 2013. A parentless child with little more than hope to hold onto, he found refuge in the warmth of the institution, which offered him a safe place to heal and grow. In 2019, after years of care and support, Shekhar was placed at Udayan Ghar for Boys, where his rehabilitation continued. It was here that he discovered his passion for computers, immersing himself in learning about computer applications and software, which would shape the course of his future.

With dedication and a keen interest in technology, Shekhar enrolled at GD Goenka University in Gurugram to pursue a Bachelor's degree in Computer Science. During his time at university, he didn't just study – he created. Shekhar developed an online course that he uploaded to Udemy, and to his surprise, it became a success. He followed it up with 12 practice tests, earning from the platform and finding a sense of independence that had once seemed unattainable. In 2024, his skills took him to a one-month internship with the Gurgaon Police, adding another feather to his cap.

By 2025, Shekhar's efforts paid off. He was working as an SOC Analyst at NTT Data, earning a respectable income. His journey from a lonely, parentless child to a confident, skilled professional was nothing short of inspiring. Each step, whether it was a technical achievement or a life milestone, reflected his resilience and drive – a reminder that no matter where we start, we all have the potential to shape our destiny.

CHANDAN

The organization's Home serve as lifelines, offering a safe space where children are not only protected but also nurtured. Bal Sahyog cater children who have been abandoned, orphaned, or are at risk of neglect and exploitation. One of the success stories that stands out is that of Chandan, whose journey is a testament to resilience and determination. According to his case file, his mother, residing in a village in Bihar, battles a psychological disorder, while his father, who is disabled, lives on the streets of Delhi.

Chandan, along with his younger brother, arrived at Bal Sahyog Children's Home in April 2018. Despite the hardships he faced, Chandan remained focused on his education, excelling with exceptional grades.

With the support of Bal Sahyog, he not only completed his schooling but also excelled in her academics. His consistent performance earned him a scholarship each year, along with a monthly reward of Rs. 500 from the Bal Sahyog management. When he turned 18, in October 2022, he was restored to his family. However, his ambition did not stop there. Chandan cleared the CUET (Common University Entrance Test) with high marks, securing a spot in the regular courses at Delhi University. Now, in his third year of B.Com, he is balancing his studies with an internship as an accountant at a CA firm, showcasing both his academic and professional dedication. He attributes his transformation to the unwavering care and support he received from Bal Sahyog, stating, "Bal Sahyog gave me a second chance at life."

VISHAL

Vishal's journey began with challenges, but also with a strong determination to create a better future. As the only child of a single parent, his mother struggled to provide him with the education and environment he needed. In 2010, when he was just 9 years old, Vishal arrived at Bal Sahyog, a shelter for children in need. There, the staff gave him a sense of security and encouragement, nurturing his potential and helping him grow with confidence.

During his time at the shelter home, Vishal discovered his interest in computers.

He quickly became skilled at operating systems, exploring computer repairing, and even studying programming languages. Over time, he realized his passion lay in creativity and technology, which led him to choose the designing field as his career path. His academic path gained momentum with the support of Bal Sahyog, and in 2019, at the age of 18, Vishal was introduced to MAD (Make A Difference). This organization played a key role in guiding him further, helping him continue his studies and preparing him for life beyond the shelter.

With the unwavering support of MAD, Vishal went on to complete his studies from NIOS. Transitioning into the outside world was not easy, but his resilience and the mentorship he received, gave him the confidence to take bold steps forward.

As he ventured into the professional world, Vishal secured an opportunity at Webmobril, where he now works as a full-time employee earning a stable income. Alongside his job, he also began freelancing, adding to his earnings and building a stronger foundation for his future.

Today, Vishal is a fighter and achiever someone who transformed early struggles into motivation. His story reflects the power of support systems, resilience, and determination to shape a meaningful life.

SHRAWAN

Shrawan's journey is a testament to resilience, hard work, and the power of support from organizations that care. He spent a significant part of his childhood at Bal Sahyog Home, where he found not only a safe haven but also a nurturing environment to grow. Staying there until the age of 18, Shrawan never let his circumstances define his future.

A bright and hardworking young boy, Shrawan pursued his graduation in Geography (Honors) from Saheed Bhagat Singh College, Delhi University, and completed it with a CGPA of 7.5. His dedication to his studies was matched by his willingness to contribute to the community. During his time at university, Shrawan worked part-time at Bal Sahyog as an Assistant to the Computer Instructor, giving back to the place that had shaped him.

Shrawan's commitment to excellence didn't stop there. In his final year, he received support from Make a Difference, an organization that helped him navigate his educational and professional journey. This support gave him the confidence to aim even higher.

Today, Shrawan is thriving as a recipient of the prestigious Gandhi Fellowship Programme scholarship, further honing his skills and knowledge. He is also pursuing a Master's degree in Rural Development (MARD) from IGNOU, continuously expanding his horizon.

Shrawan's success is a beautiful example of how perseverance, combined with the right opportunities, can lead to a bright and meaningful future.
