

Holi celebration in Bal Sahyog

Holi, the festival of colours, is celebrated with enthusiasm on the full moon day in the month of March every year. This year too Holi Milan (Mela) was celebrated by all the children of Children's Home and staffs of the 9 Contact Centres of Bal Sahyog on 10th March 2017 by playing with colours.

In the said occasion, different stalls for clothes, food items, jewelry and decorative items prepared by the children in the Vocational training centres were displayed for selling purpose. Children also enjoyed a variety of food items prepared and arranged for them. Holi items like colour, water balloon and pichkaries were distributed to the children by Mr. Anand P Joshi, Director, Administration, FICCI Federation House, Tansain Marg, New Delhi.

On 13th March 2017, Children enjoyed the festival of Holi by applying colours on each other faces, played with the pichkaries as well as threw water filled balloons at volunteers and well-wishers. As a whole the whole programme evoked a smile on their innocent faces. Children were also provided with mouthwatering Holi special dishes like gujiya, poori, choley-khulche and sweets etc.

Entrance of Bal Sahyog

Clothes stall with volunteers displaying items in action.

Chief Guest Mr. Tarun Kumar, Mr. Salam Khan (Executive Director) and Mrs. Madhu Srivastava (programme manager) visiting different stalls

Fertilizer stall

First aid corner

Md. Salam Khan visiting different game stalls arranged by the children of the Home.

Stalls arranged by different NGO and Organizations in the campus of Bal Sahyog

Token and food distribution to children

Distribution of colours, water balloons, pichkari and sweets to the children by FICCI team