

DIWALI MELA

On 3rd November 2018, Bal Sahyog celebrated Diwali Mela, The Mela was inaugurated by honorable Chief guests:-

Mr. Mohammad Salam Khan (CWC Chairperson), Dr. S.R Sharma (CWC Chairperson), Dr.K.C Vermani (CWC Chairperson), DCPO Members, Ms. Bhanu, Ms. Priya, Mr. Vivek Pandey (Child Line Coordinator). Also the Executives from the management team of Bal Sahyog -- Dr. A. K Gopal and Ms. Shashi Prabha showed their affection by attending the program.

The Diwali celebration commenced with a special assembly after which the progame started wherein there were various dance performances, motivational plays like an act on Beti Bachao Beti Padhao, commemorating life of lord Gautam Buddha, an act by Soonya Group, Singing Performances, Rangoli Making Competition and Painting Competition. Added to all the fun and zeal was the social cause-- a platform for the Bal Sahyog children to exhibit their handmade products like Bags, Kurtis, painted Diyas, Bracelets, Cards, Painting and Drawings were put up on stalls to let the people go on a little shopping spree. There were various games conducted by the children of Bal Sahyog which attracted the attention of all the guests in which they actively participated for encouraging children's enthusiasm.

After the outstanding talent exposure of the children, Bal Sahyog celebrated birthday of all the children born in the month of November. The children performed birthday cake cutting ceremony and enjoyed the dance party which was organized by Bal Sahyog. The programme was wrapped by distributing gifts to the children who had their birthdays in the month. Indeed once again in the form of Diwali Mela (festival of light), Bal Sahyog attempted to show how it enlightens the lives of children to overcome the darkness.
